

IOR RACHP Engineering Technicians Section Lifetime Achievement Award Nomination Form

Make your nomination by 15th February

Nominations may be made by employers, clients or colleagues. Candidates must have substantial experience as a service, maintenance or installation technician and be active in a field-based role in the UK.

Return this completed form to ior@ior.org.uk or contact us if you have any queries.

Details of the person making the nomination
Name
Company
How do you know the candidate?	Employer Client Other (please describe):
Phone number
Email address

I would like to nominate the following person for the Lifetime achievement award
Name
Company
Contact address
Email
Phone number if known

Nomination Statement - Please make a statement either here or on attached notes outlining why you think this person should be considered for a Lifetime Achievement Award. Please answer the point below.
This person should be considered for the lifetime achievement award because:
Please provide one or more examples of what this individual has done that makes them stand out?
How have they shown their commitment to the industry, beyond their length of service?

Other comments you would like to make in support of your nomination

If have any questions about the nomination process please contact lisa@ior.or.uk